OBSERVE CAMBRIAN DAY.

Loyal Welsh Citizens of State Join at Lake and Pay Tribute to Native Land.

"Cambrian Day" was celebrated at the lake yesterday and the Welsh people and their friends were out in full force. It is estimated that about 1,000 persons were in attendance, and a strange to say, a Scotchman, James Fowler of Salt Lake, won the prize which was being offered by the Welsh people. His nearest competitor was Thomas Edwards of the Emerald Isle, who placed second. It should be stated that no representative of the Emerald Isle could compete, otherwise the incident would probably have been otherwise.

The formal programme of the day was carried out in the theatre, where Postmaster A. L. Thomas presided. Following is the programme: Duets, Misses Esther Davis and Hazel Cannon; Cambrian war song, Charles Kent; solo, Miss Willie Williams; solo, David Jeremy; recitation, Miss Lillian Brundage; solo, Mrs. Lizzie Thomas; Edward; Vocal solo, Mrs. D. R. James of Spanish Fork; step-dance contest.

Euroka gained the honor of bringing in the greatest crowd from without Salt Lake, due directly to the effort of the pioneer Tom Marshall Joseph Phillips, who was in charge of arrangements for Jub county.

RARE SPORT AT LAGOON.

Railway Carmen, Iron Moulders and Blacksmiths Have a Day of Pleasure.

The feature of yesterday's resort excursions was the combined annual excursion of the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen, Iron Moulders' union No. 231, and International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths and Helpers, at the lagoon. All the blacksmiths and moulding shops in the city were closed at noon and provisions were made so that a large number of carmen were able to have a day off. The day began auspiciously for the excursionists. By the time the first train from town reached the lagoon, the grounds were well filled with pleasure seekers from Plain City, who came in a special train over the Oregon Short Line. The Plain City party had a good programme of races, etc., which, when combined with the elaborate programme of the carmen and blacksmiths, made a rare day of sports. In many of the events great rivalry was maintained. The prize was especially true in the case of the ball game between Slaterville and Plain City, in which the latter won in the last inning by a score of 9 to 1.

The playing of the Drury brothers, the battery for the Plain City team, was of the professional order.

The principal contests, however, were the ball game between the carmen and the moulders, and the boat race. To watch the latter the entire crowd swarmed along the banks of both lakes, and a contest was keenly watched from beginning to end. It was a fight from the start between Plain City's best carmen and representatives from Slaterville. The contest was a close one, and the leaders, neck and neck, the nose of Jones' boat from Plain City, then Warren's of Slaterville, pulled ahead. Twenty yards from the finish it was any man's race, but Jones got the start on the last turn, allowing Warren to win easily.

In the ball game the carmen won by a score of 3 to 6. It was a pretty contest, and the crowd was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

Besides the ball games, all the other kinds of sports were held, the winners of which were:

Married men's race, Jack Dunlap; free-for-all, Jack Norman; mixed women's walking race, Mrs. Mitchell; young men's race, Willie Jackson; young women's race, Mabel Wilson; race, John Morrison; boys' sack race, Charles Morgan; broad jump, K.
